

I think it would be a big mistake to limit XM radio, in fact it should be expanded to include a larger range of sport play by play.
I travel alot and the satellite radio keeps me informed of the weahter and road condition which could mean life or death.

Regard
John Howe